Premier Arts Event by KNMA for Young Artists2020

Dear Parent

“As an artist, be a warrior. If you ever dreamt of contributing to humanity, now is your chance.”

Kiran Nadar Museum of Art (KNMA), a contemporary art museum and a non-commercial, not-for-profit organization is conducting an online art competition on the theme "Mask".

This competition provides an opportunity to the students to creatively volunteer and sow the seeds of ideas on how masks can be designed to eliminate the virus for the betterment of mankind.

Objective:

The focus of the artwork will be on the mask to protect ourselves from the novel coronavirus. The artist can display their creativity using the mask as the main object in their artwork.

The Last Date of submission of entries is 21 May 2020, latest by 2.15pm.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Junior Category (Born on or after Jan 1, 2009)
- Senior Category (Born between Jan 1, 2002 and Dec 31, 2008)

Size of Artwork:

- The artwork is to be created on an A4 paper or A4 Canvas.

Terms and Conditions:

- A child can submit only one entry.
- Age fraud, plagiarism and usage of software editing tool in any form will lead to disqualification from the competition.
- The selected entries will be asked to submit the original artwork along with the Date of Birth Certificate to KNMA. So you are requested to keep the artwork safely till the end of the competition.
