Dear Parent

The German Digital Kinder university of the Goethe-Institute is an innovative educational project encouraging children's ability to think creatively. The abbreviation KINDERUNI is composed of the German words "Kinder" (children) and "Uni" (short for university). It provides the opportunity to familiarize children with a variety of subjects and have them explore these by playing games. Most importantly, the Digital Kinder university addresses questions that children are interested in and that have importance and relevance to their daily lives.

A key aspect of the Digital Kinder university is its online platform, which is accessible to everyone free of charge. With this interactive platform, they can quench their thirst of knowledge at their own pace and learn German at the same time.

Any child can study at the Digital Kinder university without leaving their home. The young students' parents can help them understand the study materials and can use a parent profile to monitor and track their progress.

Goethe-Institut invite parents of students studying in classes 4th and 5th to join us for the info session and explore the digital Kinder university.

Wednesday, 26.08.2020, 17:00 – 18:00 hrs. or
