Dear Parent

‘Write Now’ by Scholastic Quill Club Writers is a guided writing and mentoring programme designed to identify writers who have a special gift of telling stories. It is a unique opportunity for aspiring writers aged between 9 to 17 years to get their story published by Scholastic-Quill Club Writers.

The programme involves a Two- Stage Selection process.

The Registration Fee for the ‘Write Now’ programme is Rs 395/- which includes two levels of selection tests. It also includes a scholastic e-voucher of Rs. 395/- which is redeemable at the following websites

If both levels of selection are cleared, the selected students would undergo an 8- day Mentoring programme (2 hours per day) with a mentorship fee.

The following are the requirement for the online test:

- A desktop or a laptop, equipped with a camera, microphone and speakers.
- A steady internet connection.
- Installation of Zoom Video Conferencing App (<https://zoom.us>).
- An email account which would be used to send a mail during the test session.
- Using a smart phone, tablet or ipad is not allowed.

The instructions given are to be followed for successfully completing the programme.

- Compulsory attendance on all 8 days of the mentoring sessions (2 hours a day).
- Ideas and content should be original.
- The stories should not hurt the sentiments of any individual, community, religion, institution, organisation and nationality or maybe offensive to any reader.
- The decision of the mentor in the selection of the story and its contents will be final.

After the completion of the mentoring schedule, the book will be ready for release in about 60-90 days approximately. It would also go through a process of editing, proof reading, design and layout before it is launched.
