

K.R.Mangalam World School Hosts The 2nd Level Of Scout-Guide Training Camp

Fun and games with duties and responsibilities is the culture of service-oriented movement. Scout and Guide is a character building educational movement. A three day Praveshika Camp and Komal pad Scout and Guide camp was held in K.R Mangalam World School, Vikaspuri from 3rd October -5th October 2016. The students participated in the training conducted by the trainees under the guidance of Sh.MangeRam Chauhan, State Org. Commissioner, State Head Quarters, Hindustan Scout and Guide.

The highlights of the camp were self-defense training, wood craft signs, tree craft signs, concept of knotting and many more. The course included sessions on the principles of scouting and guiding and importance of discipline. The activities helped to foster in the students importance of values like honesty, dignity, kindness etc. Important life skills like leadership, creativity, team spirit got honed in them. Each session was invigorating and the students participated with tremendous verve and gusto.

The camp concluded with the medal distribution ceremony to the students and flag lowering ceremony. The commitment and the involvement of the trainees and trainers made the camp a success. They are all gearing for their next Selection cum trial camp. Students at the end realized to always keep one's mind open and be ready to learn since life is learning and learning is life.

